

Only You Can Prevent Television

The more you participate in television the less you participate in life.
TV is time taken from your family, your community, your nation and your self.
Watching television teaches children that this is how we live.

foregoTV
live your own life